Ordination of Rev Tony Moffett

We pray today for Tony as he prepares for his ordination in St Colman's on Sunday 11th January at 3.00pm. All are welcome to attend.

We ask anyone who is attending the ordination to please be seated in the church before 2.50pm. Viewing of the service will be on the parish Facebook page. The ordination service will last approximately 90 mins.

The Ordination takes place within the context of the Sunday mass for the Feast of Baptism of the Lord. After the readings, the Rite of Ordination begins by invoking the presence of the Holy Spirit. The Candidate is called forward and presented to Archbishop Martin who instructs Tony on his duties as priest. Tony then makes his Promise of Obedience. The congregation seeks the intercession of the saints of God for Tony.

Tony approaches the Archbishop who lays hands on his head, conveying the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Archbishop says the Prayer of Intercession. The newly ordained priest is then vested with his priestly garments and his hands are anointed with Holy Oil. He joins the Archbishop to concelebrate the remainder of the Mass.

After the service Tony will process out of the church with the other priests but will return to give his "First Blessing" to parishioners and well-wishers.

Refreshments will be served in the hall afterwards.

Tony's first mass will be held in Newry Cathedral on Monday 12th January at 10.30am followed by refreshments in Newry Parish Centre. Everyone is welcome to attend.
