Special Collection For Ukraine

The Irish Bishops have asked for a Special Collection to be taken up at Masses on Sun 27th March to support humanitarian efforts in Ukraine and especially the families and children who have had to flee their homeland in advance of the Russian invasion. The proceeds of this Special Collection will be directed to Caritas Internationalis, which is the helping hand of the Church on the ground in the Ukraine and the surrounding region. Please be as generous as you can. Thank You.

Dromore Sunday Readers and Eucharistic Ministers

We are currently updating the rota for readers and ministers at Sunday mass in Dromore. If you were previously on the rota let us know if you still want to stay on it. We are going to put 2 people on every month: the first person reads the first 2 weeks and the second person reads the last 2/3 weeks and then they don't have to read for a couple of months again. Any new readers are welcome, leave your name with Fr Magennis or contact the parish office.

Dromore Youth "Stay Awake"

Join other young people on Friday 1st April at 8 pm for a 12 hour stay awake at St Peter's in Lurgan. Our aim is to experience, empathize, and show solidarity with those who are 'homeless' - a refugee, from Ukraine, Africa, Syria and other parts of the world. You will have a busy 12 hours, meet new people, learn more from various charities who work with the homeless and refugees, time for 'craic' music, cards, etc. The only time you will have for sleep is when you are given the opportunity to sleep outside - (bring a cardboard box or 2, a few large bin liners). There will be time for prayer too, our world needs prayer, it also needs a laugh so we hope you will bring energy and humour to share with others. To sign up email your name to dromoreyd@btconnect.com by Tuesday 29th March, indicating your Parish and school. I will send you a consent form that I need you and your parents to complete - we are hoping for donations for a charity who work with the homeless - no more than £10, £5 if possible.
